The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Funakoshi et al.

Funakoshi et al show a chip carrier 1 having a recess 1A and first and second spacer formed on opposing sides of the base is shown formed by and protruding base 4 which formed spacer regions for leads 5B. Receiving face 2 is shown formed opposite base 4.

Claims 1, 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yoneda et al.

Yoneda et al shows in figure 16 a chip carrier 17 having a recess having chip 11 disposed therein and first and second spacer 25 formed on opposing sides of the base

Claims 1-3 are rejected.

Claims 4-7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Kasai et al, DiFrancesco and Walsh are cited to show chip carriers with recesses.
